

Mohamed-Ali Karaki

Software Developer

5901 Appoline St.
Dearborn, MI, 48126
MohamedAli.Karaki@gmail.com
(313) 707-1711
LinkedIn: www.linkedin.com/in/mohamedali101

Intuitive Analyst whose approach undergoes a systematic process of philosophical boundaries in regard to the infinite design of compass engineering. Highly disciplined to strict regulations resulting in no leftover endeavors. Fast paced effective and efficient. Bilingual. Seeking Root-Investments in time and well-being.

Professional Experience

January 2017 - May 2019

President of the Engineering Club Henry Ford Engineering Club

President position with 5 root grade associates. Club of 65 members conducted numerous campus events. Outreach to different age groups for creative project opportunities. Invention fare with presence of corporate Managers/Employees. Club showcased developed motor engine vehicle, UAV and C++ coding skills to participants.

Education

January 2018 - Present

Associate in Engineering in Software Engineering Schoolcraft College at Livonia

September 2021 - March 2022

Certificate of Completion in Web Development- Full Stack LaunchCode at Online

The Launchcode cohort is a intensive online training program that helps prepare its students to experience and understand the fundamentals of Web Development. It covers full stack topics including Java, Javascript, Angular and SQL. The cohort teaches group work and self learning skills that prepare any individual to proceed to the job market.

Key Skills

- Java
- Javascript
- SQL
- Angular

Certifications

April 2022

Certificate of Completion of Launchcode Cohort